The ZCMB - A Brief History

Zanesville flourished with performing arts activities in the late 1800s, and the John Bauer Band was among them. The band was organized before 1880 and averaged 15 to 20 members. When the band leader died in 1912, his ensemble was taken over by the American Rolling Mills Company, and became known as the Armco Band.

The 7th Regiment and Armco bands held their concerts locally, in McIntire Park and Putnam Park. By 1923, the two bands had merged, taking the present day name of Zanesville Memorial Concert Band.

Today, funds for the concerts are raised by individual and corporate contributions. An endowment fund has also been established for anyone wishing to make a donation towards the ZMCB.

The band's current home is Zane's Landing Park, along the eastern banks of the Muskingum River in downtown Zanesville. Concerts are performed on five Sunday evenings through the summer.

Concerts remain free to the public, thanks to the generosity of our supporters.

...Not Afraid to Dream

by Brian Balmages

This composition was commissioned by John Marshall High School in Rochester Minnesota in 2006 on the passing of one its students Kevin Langlie who was a member of the class of 2006 and played tuba in the band. One of the hymns sung at Kevin's wake "Lift High the Cross" was the musical basis of the composition. A short tuba duet toward the end of the piece reminds everyone that Kevin is still in the band. The title of the piece comes from the eulogy delivered by his band director at his funeral "His focus on the positive and possible left no room in his life for negative attitudes and excuses...He wasn't afraid to dream and share those dreams..."

Lennon / McCartney Portrait

arr. by Bill Holcombe

John Lennon and Paul McCartney were the creative force behind much of the British rock group "The Beatles" success in the 60s and 70s. Arranger Bill Holcombe has put together four of their most popular songs; "Hard Day's Night"(1964) , "And I Love Her"(1964), "Day Tripper"(1965) and "Hey Jude"(1968).

The Stars and Stripes Forever

by John Philip Sousa

Sousa wrote in his autobiography, that he composed this march in his head on Christmas Day in 1896. He was on an ocean liner returning to the United States, having just learned of the death of his longtime manager, David Blakely. He committed it to paper when he reached shore. It was first performed in May of 1897 and was immediately greeted with enthusiasm. Sousa also wrote a set of lyrics, which led to a 1942 four part choral version of the march. This is the National March of the United States of America, by a 1987 act of the U.S. Congress and signed into law by President Ronald Reagan.
