

ZMCB Sponsorship

The band depends on corporate and individual sponsorships to fund its next season. Just one concert costs approximately $2,000. Over the years, the Zanesville Memorial Concert Band has provided local residents with an enjoyable summer evening of entertainment, as well as providing dedicated local musicians with an opportunity to perform.

Here's how you can help continue this tremendous Zanesville tradition!

Endowment Fund

The ZCMB Endowment Fund is held at the Muskingum County Community Foundation. You can give to this in many different ways including cash, publicly-traded securities, tangible personal property, bequests (wills), charitable remainder trusts, life estate gifts, life insurance, IRAs, and retirement plans. A new fund may be named in memory or in honor of a designate with a contribution. Please contact ZMCB for more information!

Monetary Contribution Levels

The ZCMB - A Brief History

Zanesville flourished with performing arts activities in the late 1800s, and the John Bauer Band was among them. The band was organized before 1880 and averaged 15 to 20 members. When the band leader died in 1912, his ensemble was taken over by the American Rolling Mills Company, and became known as the Armco Band.

The 7th Regiment and Armco bands held their concerts locally, in McIntire Park and Putnam Park. By 1923, the two bands had merged, taking the present day name of Zanesville Memorial Concert Band.

Today, funds for the concerts are raised by individual and corporate contributions. An endowment fund has also been established for anyone wishing to make a donation towards the ZMCB.

The band's current home is Zane's Landing Park, along the eastern banks of the Muskingum River in downtown Zanesville. Concerts are performed on five Sunday evenings through the summer.

Concerts remain free to the public, thanks to the generosity of our supporters.

ZANESVILLE COMMUNITY THEATER PRESENTS

Moon Over Buffalo

Comedy by Ken Ludwig

Directed by Sheryl Wise

Producer: Jan Kiikka

Show dates: July 15, 16, 22, 23/ 8:00pm / July 17, 24 / 2:30pm

Charlotte and George Hay are on tour in Buffalo in 1953 with a repertory consisting of Cyrano de Bergerac "revised, one nostril version" and Noel Coward's Private Lives, when they receive word that they might just have one last shot at stardom: Frank Capra is coming to town to see their matinee!

Quilters

Musical by Barbara Damashek and Molly Newman

Directed by Rebecca Wagstaff

Musical Director: Chad Stemm

Show dates: September 16, 17, 23, 24/ 8:00pm / September 18, 25 / 2:30pm

QUILTERS is the story of, Sarah, a pioneer matriarch and six women, who are called her daughters, as they face frontier life. The musical is presented as a series of short tales and tableaux matched with musical numbers, each presenting an aspect of frontier life or womanhood.

The patches or blocks represent "girlhood, marriage, childbirth, spinsterhood, twisters, fire, illness and death." The various patches are ultimately assembled into one glorious, brilliantly colorful quilt, the effect is both breathtaking and magical.

Franklin Roosevelt's D-Day Prayer

June 6, 1944

Give us strength, too -- strength in our daily tasks, to redouble the contributions we make in the physical and the material support of our armed forces.

And let our hearts be stout, to wait out the long travail, to bear sorrows that may come, to impart our courage unto our sons wheresoever they may be.

And, O Lord, give us Faith. Give us Faith in Thee; Faith in our sons; Faith in each other; Faith in our united crusade. Let not the keenness of our spirit ever be dulled. Let not the impacts of temporary events, of temporal matters of but fleeting moment let not these deter us in our unconquerable purpose. With Thy blessing, we shall prevail over the unholy forces of our enemy. Help us to conquer the apostles of greed and racial arrogancies. Lead us to the saving of our country, and with our sister Nations into a world unity that will spell a sure peace a peace invulnerable to the schemings of unworthy men. And a peace that will let all of men live in freedom, reaping the just rewards of their honest toil.

Thy will be done, Almighty God.

Amen.

-Franklin Roosevelt

Franklin Roosevelt's D-Day Prayer

June 6, 1944

My fellow Americans: Last night, when I spoke with you about the fall of Rome, I knew at that moment that troops of the United States and our allies were crossing the Channel in another and greater operation. It has come to pass with success thus far.

And so, in this poignant hour, I ask you to join with me in prayer:

Almighty God: Our sons, pride of our Nation, this day have set upon a mighty endeavor, a struggle to preserve our Republic, our religion, and our civilization, and to set free a suffering humanity.

Lead them straight and true; give strength to their arms, stoutness to their hearts, steadfastness in their faith.

They will need Thy blessings. Their road will be long and hard. For the enemy is strong. He may hurl back our forces. Success may not come with rushing speed, but we shall return again and again; and we know that by Thy grace, and by the righteousness of our cause, our sons will triumph. They will be sore tried, by night and by day, without rest-until the victory is won. The darkness will be rent by noise and flame. Men's souls will be shaken with the violences of war.

For these men are lately drawn from the ways of peace. They fight not for the lust of conquest. They fight to end conquest. They fight to liberate. They fight to let justice arise, and tolerance and good will among all Thy people. They yearn but for the end of battle, for their return to the haven of home. Some will never return. Embrace these, Father, and receive them, Thy heroic servants, into Thy kingdom.

And for us at home -- fathers, mothers, children, wives, sisters, and brothers of brave men overseas -- whose thoughts and prayers are ever with them--help us, Almighty God, to rededicate ourselves in renewed faith in Thee in this hour of great sacrifice.

Many people have urged that I call the Nation into a single day of special prayer. But because the road is long and the desire is great, I ask that our people devote themselves in a continuance of prayer. As we rise to each new day, and again when each day is spent, let words of prayer be on our lips, invoking Thy help to our efforts.

MEET OUR CONDUCTORS

Sunday, July 3rd, 2016 / Secrest Auditorium

JANINE SCHMELZER BOCK

ASSISTANT CONDUCTOR

Mrs. Schmelzer Bock is a native of Bremen, Ohio, and received her Bachelor of Music Education and Master of the Arts degrees from Ohio State University. As a member of the Ohio State University Marching Band, she became the first woman to dot the "i" in the famed "Script Ohio" marching maneuver in a single-script at a home football game in Ohio Stadium. Schmelzer Bock also has been a member of the 122nd Army Band / Army National Guard, stationed at Beitler Armory in Worthington. When not wielding the baton in front of the ZMCB, you will find her playing tuba for the band.

STEVE HENDERSHOTT

SOLOIST

Steve has been an active performer since adolescence in various capacities, from acting in dramas and musicals to concert performances as both soloist and chorus member. Over the years Steve has performed with organizations from Meadowbrook Theatre and Meadowbrook Music Festival in Michigan to the Oregon Bach Festival in Eugene, Oregon as well as numerous collegiate and community groups. Locally, you may have seen and heard him in various productions at Zanesville Community Theater. He is delighted to have the opportunity to perform with this terrific organization. When he isn't on stage or in rehearsal, Steve works at the David Crist State Farm agency and has enjoyed his "temporary" position there for the last 10+ years. He is also currently working online toward a Bachelor's degree in Information Technology. None of this would be possible without the exceptional support of his AMAZING wife Jolene, and his loving daughters, Jadyn, Cadence and Alonna who play their roles as audience participants with aplomb. Steve and Jolene celebrated 14 years of wedded bliss this Spring, and he is so grateful to her for being the real reason for anything that could be called his success!

JEFFREY L. ROQUEMORE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Jeff retired from Zanesville High School after serving 16 years as band director and music department coordinator from 1988-2004. Previously, Jeff held band director positions at Philo High School, Hamlin (W.Va.) High School, Fort Frye High School, and, most recently, Custer County High School in Westcliffe, Colo. Jeff earned a Bachelor's Degree from Ohio University in 1974, a Master's Degree in Music Education from Marshall University in 1981, and a Master's Degree in Public School Administration from Ohio University in 1992. He has served the Ohio Music Education Association (OMEA) as district secretary/treasurer, president-elect, and president. Jeff was also director of the Muskingum College Spirit Band from 2004-06. He also plays flute and piccolo for the band.
