The ZCMB - A Brief History

Zanesville flourished with performing arts activities in the late 1800s, and the John Bauer Band was among them. The band was organized before 1880 and averaged 15 to 20 members. When the band leader died in 1912, his ensemble was taken over by the American Rolling Mills Company, and became known as the Armco Band.

The 7th Regiment and Armco bands held their concerts locally, in McIntire Park and Putnam Park. By 1923, the two bands had merged, taking the present day name of Zanesville Memorial Concert Band.

Today, funds for the concerts are raised by individual and corporate contributions. An endowment fund has also been established for anyone wishing to make a donation towards the ZMCB.

The band's current home is Zane's Landing Park, along the eastern banks of the Muskingum River in downtown Zanesville. Concerts are performed on five Sunday evenings through the summer.

Concerts remain free to the public, thanks to the generosity of our supporters.

Remembering

Michael Engle

Michael Frederick Engle (April 2, 1987—October 17, 2014) would have described himself as a “Band Geek,” “Sci-Fi Aficionado,” “Trekkie,” “techie,” Lego Master Builder, and avid gun enthusiast. He loved life & tried to make the most out of every day. He graduated from Zanesville High School in 2005 & The Ohio State University in 2009 with a major in aviation management & a minor in business. He was in National Honor Society, the ZHS band, golf team, ran sound for the drama dept., sang with the Y-City Barbershoppers, was very active in the Market St Baptist church & after graduation from OSU he did a lot of work with Mifflin Presbyterian church’s youth program in addition to being an active alumni of AHP fraternity.

Michael held a variety of jobs throughout his life. He started working at age 16 at Pugh Jewelers, went on to Timber Run Gardens, & his first summer home from OSU at Zanesville Aviation where he decided that his college major was to be aviation. After graduation from OSU he was a special projects manager at Pilot Air Freight in Gahanna. When he landed that job, he came home telling us all that “you know, the future is in air freight!”

One thing that was a constant for Michael was his love of music. We introduced him to all kinds and styles of music. He tended to gravitate to classical movie sound tracks, jazz, classic rock & what we now call “the oldies.”

Michael’s 3 biggest fears in life were: spiders, needles, and cancer, in that order. After calling me to ask about symptoms of a urinary tract infection, I had him go to an urgent care where he checked out fine & was told it was viral. That set off alarms for me & I pushed very hard for him to get to a doctor. In the next 8 months, additional symptoms started to appear & after a very stern talk from his dad, he went to a doctor one of his roommate’s recommended who immediately sent him for a CT scan which revealed a tumor which was the size of a pork roast in his lower abdomen. He was diagnosed with Desmoplastic Small Round Cell Tumor (DSRCT), a childhood cancer that very rarely develops in adults. We were told that he had a 15% chance of making it 5 years...he made it 2.

The July 17th concert was to honor his memory & his valiant fight to beat cancer. If his story can do anything, it is our prayer that it motivates people to be proactive in their healthcare. Cancer awareness is great—but just being aware isn’t enough. Get your physicals, care for your bodies, & catch it EARLY! That is the true key to beating it.

Directed by Rebecca Wagstaff

Musical Director: Chad Stemm

Show dates: September 16, 17, 23, 24/ 8:00pm / September 18, 25 / 2:30pm

QUILTERS is the story of, Sarah, a pioneer matriarch and six women, who are called her daughters, as they face frontier life. The musical is presented as a series of short tales and tableaux matched with musical numbers, each presenting an aspect of frontier life or womanhood.

The patches or blocks represent "girlhood, marriage, childbirth, spinsterhood, twisters, fire, illness and death." The various patches are ultimately assembled into one glorious, brilliantly colorful quilt, the effect is both breathtaking and magical.

Annie Get Your Gun

Musical by Irving Berlin

Directed by Angel Palmer

Musical Director: Tom Tompkins

Audition Dates: August 14, 15 / 7:00pm

Show dates: November 4, 5, 11, 12 / 8:00pm / September 6, 13 / 2:30pm

Annie Oakley is the best shot around, and she manages to support her little brother and sisters by selling the game she hunts. When she's discovered by Col. Buffalo Bill, he persuades this novel sharpshooter to join his Wild West Show. It only takes one glance for her to fall head over heels for dashing shooting ace Frank Butler, who headlines the show. She soon eclipses Butler as the main attraction which, while good for business, is bad for romance. Butler hightails it off to join a rival show, his bruised male ego leading the way, but is ultimately pitted against Annie in a final shootout. The rousing, sure-fire finale hits the mark every time in a testament to the power of female ingenuity.
